All women of the parish are invited!

Dear parish family,

Our beloved Minister of Music, Randy Bloom, has informed the vestry of his resignation from this position as of Sunday, August 8th. I know this announcement will feel sudden to many of us, yet his discernment of this decision has been under way for some time. The timing is also disappointing for us as we were mutually looking forward to ministry together. I am grateful he was able to celebrate with us at my first service before leaving the post at which he has served so faithfully.

At this time Randy has asked not to have a public celebration of his ministry. I will be visiting the Blooms to express our gratitude next week and will be happy to bring any cards or notes from anyone in the parish to them at that time.

We hope to continue in prayer and communion with Randy and Edla Ann as part of Christ's Body, no matter how distant, and ask God to bestow on them many blessings. Father John
